WE CLAIM A RECORD!

The Times-Virginian would like to claim for itself a record! Surely we are in a class to ourselves. Here's the record:
We have not and we will not conduct a poll of our readers as to how they intend to vote in the November Presidential election. Every week some new group takes upon itself to announce a presidential poll. It's fast becoming a joke. They're trying to have the election before the legal time for it to be held. We've been invited to join in various polls sponsored by newspapers. But we are not interested. Most of these polls are staged merely for publicity's sake. For year's the estimated literacy digest had a monopoly on conducting these presidential polls, but this time everyday and his brother had come out with the "only accurate poll." The thing is being run into the ground, and we suggest a moratorium. And, incidentally, it doesn't require a poll to tell how Appomattox county is going in November. There are 1968 voters eligible in Appomattox and if election day is a good clear day and we get them all to the polls, Roosevelt will get 1700 of them! Mark that down.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our dear mother, Mrs. Maud Lucado, who departed this life one year ago today, August 14, 1935.
A smile of heavenly birth,
And when the angels called her home,
She smiled farewell to earth.
Heaven retaineth now our treasure,
Earth the lonely casket keeps,
And the sunbeams love to linger
Where our mother's spirit sleeps.
We have lost our darling mother,
But an angel came down for her,
And her form is just to view.
Oh, that dear one, how we loved her,
But an angel came down for her,
And removed her from our track.
Sadly missed by her children.
